

Lord William <sup>family tree</sup> Graham married Mary Stuart daughter of Robert IIIrd of Scotland
 They had two sons John of Plaverhouse and David two daughters one called Mary the other I think was called Ann Mary married our grandfather she never came to the Country grandfather used to only come to the Country on business I suppose My grandfather must have been born in England as he married Ann Saunders daughter of Joan Carter surrogate Carter. Passed to John about his grandfather I think he lived with them.

Morry family papers Ferryland.

Any way all the Morry Grandfathers are buried in Ferryland if you studied the Tomb stones you could have an idea when they came here. I dont think they were here when Carter did these war stunts. That house that Dr Brooks claimed for Lord Baltimore was Carters Grandmother Windsor was born there her mother was Betsey Carter my mother was born there too. Graham of Cleverhouse what ever his faults was Scotlands bravest Soldier. What ever his faults. He was not fond of the Stuart Connection he has prouder of being related to the Great Montrose Mr Selenty owned the property where Baltmore lived it is in the Pool if you look for it you will find a parcel piece of ground

Who put that ridiculous piece in the paper that the Morrises came to the country with Lord Baltimore. Grandmother Miriam Grandmother or great-grandmother was Miriam sister of Sir Hans Sloan founder of the British Museum she had twenty children. It would take me too long to tell you all about her relations Capt Hill, Bell & Cochrane. And her husbands a Grand & Lieutenant Sweetland.
Grand mother Morry was Mary Graham of Claverhouse she died at the age of 72 she is buried at Westminster in

The Church of England grave yard also a lot of other relations of ours her husband was a Banker in Dartmouth Preston Morry. He came to New England owing to failure of Bank his wife lived in England he at first went home in the winter. Miriam married a Mr Wylie a brother of Ireland gentleman.
I am afraid your mother took very little interest in her husband's family her object was to bring her children up in the faith of her maternal grandfather. But as I blame her it is what I would do if so placed.
